Art Unit: 2661

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1-25, drawn to group I, classified in class 370, subclass 401.

II. Claims 26-37, drawn to group II, classified in class 370, subclass 467.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as (a apparatus for masquerading addresses using a PPG, and invention of group II is directed towards using dummy/signaling packets to keep a firewall open. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant's election without traverse of group I in the reply filed on 3/1/05 (telephone interview) is acknowledged.

Art Unit: 2661

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

1. Claims 1-25 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-3 of U. S. Patent No. 6,674,758 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: Claims in the parent application are more narrow and it would have been obvious to e.g., delete using a router because a gateway/gatekeeper acts as a router anyway.

Claims in present application      rejected by claims in parent

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 4-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. Claim 4 recites the limitation "the router" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

6. Claims 14-19, 21, 23-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fangman (US 2002/0150083).

Fangman discloses a network (Fig. 3) comprising one or more stations using VoIP (e.g., sections 08), a firewall (e.g., 132, Figs. 3; sections 53, 73), a proxy or gatekeeper (not further defined reads on gateway 170; section 46, acting as a proxy, section 12) for masquerading or translating untranslated IP addresses received from one or more stations via the firewall (e.g., sections 19, 21; 826, Fig. 8C), embedded within a data portion (referring to a higher layer protocol data unit/PDU being operated on, section 12; IP address in the payload, section 09), compares IP addresses to a source address (e.g., replacing private source IP with the NATed source IP address, section 63), assigns a port to each station (e.g., sections 269, 63, 179), and receiving a MAC address during a registration phase (e.g., sections 16, 12, 25).

Art Unit: 2661

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 4-10, 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fangman, as set forth above, in view of Fang (US 2003/0091046).

Fangman fails to particularly call for receiving an IP addresses via a firewall, as specified in claim 4.

Art Unit: 2661

Fang teaches that a gateway acting as proxy can be located in such a way (connected to an network) that it receives IP addresses via a firewall, as specified in claim 4.

It would have been obvious to connect the GW to a network because then the GW can be connected to e.g., an internet and/or a plurality of locations.

9. Claims 20, 22 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

10. Claims 11 and 13 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
